

TSURU FOR SOLIDARITY BINGO BY MIKA, AGE 12 FOR AGES 10+

What You Need to Play

- At least three players.
- A printed out BINGO board for each player.
- A pen or pencil for each player.

How to Play

To play Tsuru for Solidarity BINGO, you will need at least 3 participants. (1 "caller," and at least 2 "players").

Each participant should have their own BINGO card and a pen or a pencil. One of the participants will be the "caller." The caller will call-out a number (1-25) for the "players," and determine speed and accuracy of the response.

The first player who responds affirmatively to the statement that corresponds with the number called by the caller can shade that square.

"BINGO" is 4 shaded corners, or 5 shaded squares in a diagonal, horizontal or vertical line.

Tsuru for Solidarity BINGO

By Mika, age 12; for ages 10+

B	I	N*	G	O
1 I read a book about Japanese American incarceration	6 I met/am related to someone who was incarcerated during WWII	11 I folded a paper crane (tsuru)	16 I can name one of the concentration camps	21 I attended a Day of Remembrance
2 I watched a video about Japanese American incarceration	7 I interviewed an elder about their experience	12 I did a cultural scavenger hunt	17 I can name one of the Department of Justice camps	22 I made a protest sign
3 I saw a museum exhibit on Japanese American incarceration	8 I wrote a report on Japanese American incarceration	13 	18 I know who Fred Korematsu is	23 I participated in an action
4 I went to a former Japanese American concentration camp site	9 I participated in a family discussion about Japanese American incarceration	14 I colored a window placard	19 I see people of Japanese heritage standing up against injustice	24 I wrote a letter to someone in detention
5 I heard a story about Japanese American incarceration	10 I attended a pilgrimage	15 I listened to a read aloud	20 I will stand up against injustice	25 I pledge to speak out against detention

* For an easier game, do the Tsuru for Solidarity children & family activities first.